

2017 Iowa Seedstock Producer of the Year Brandt Farms

Brandt Farms started in 1986 with Kirk and Lynn Brandt and has grown today to include sons, Austin and Weston, along with Weston's wife Bree.

Consisting of around 180 head of cows; of which about 50% ARE registered Angus. Bulls are raised and sold private treaty every spring, along with bred heifers. Annual online sales are used to market show heifers and steers every fall. Brandt Farms have been a longtime supporter of the Iowa Angus Bull Test.

Kirk is a former Iowa Angus President as well as serving as chairman for the Iowa Angus Bull Test. Both Weston and Austin as well as Bree are former Iowa Junior Angus members and officers. Austin went on to serve on the National Junior Angus Board. All of the family are active members of the Adams County Cattlemen as well as the Iowa Cattlemen's Association.

Along with the cow herd Kirk and his family farm about 2200 acres of row crop.

Congratulations Brandts' on this well deserved honor.
