

Iowa Angus Auxiliary Press Release

AGAIN THIS YEAR!

The Iowa Angus Auxiliary is again offering this award to be given to Iowa Junior Angus members who participate and achieve in the educational events at the National Junior Angus Show. The Anita Russell Achievement Award has been initiated in honor of Anita's support and dedication to the Iowa Angus Auxiliary and Junior associations.

Anita Osburn Russell was born and raised in Bedford, Iowa. She was a charter member of the Auxiliary, and served as their president in 1958. Her husband, H.K. Russell was a former secretary to the Iowa Angus Association. They were both big enthusiasts and great supporters of the Iowa Junior Angus Association. This award will be given to the top two point accumulating Juniors in these categories at the National Junior Angus Show:

- LEAD Conference
- Photography
- Graphic Design
- Writing
- Auctioneering
- Beef Science Poster
- Public Speaking
- Extemporaneous Speaking
- Team Sales
- Team Marketing
- Team Fitting
- CAB Cook-off
- Quiz Bowl
- Career Development
